For Immediate Release

Acme Brick Company Is Now the Exclusive Distributor for King Klinker Thin Brick in Twelve States in the Southwest and Southeast.

Acme Brick began working with King Klinker in 2020 in the southeastern U.S. Now Acme's exclusive sales territory spans the area from New Mexico to northern Florida.

King Klinker manufactures extruded thin brick in a vast number of colors, textures, corner units, and sizes including widths up to 20".

Collections include: glazed, traditional, and their Ultra Premium line brick in a total of more than 100 color options. To view the entire product line visit brick.com/king-klinker.

King Klinker products are created in a factory built in 2013 dedicated solely to the production of thin brick. The product line exceeds all testing standards. An Acme representative said, "I know that architects and designers will be excited with the unique colors, textures and sizes of this product. King Klinker thin brick provide a timeless exterior façade and interior design elements for both commercial and residential construction."

Acme Brick Company, founded in 1891, sells many quality building material and design products for the home through over 50 Acme Brick Tile & Stone public showrooms across 13 states in the Southwest and Southeast. Acme is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Berkshire Hathaway, Inc. For more information visit brick.com.
