

Features

Glass: Transparent Glass

Grid: Standard Clear Anodized "Matte Silver" Finish

Architect:

Zibits Studios

The Mariners Museum in Newport News, VA allows visitors to view exhibits including historical artifacts and interactive display in its over 90,000 square feet of gallery space. The U.S.S. Monitor Center, inside the museum, utilizes IBP's GlassWalkSG Flooring to optimize the limited space while also enhancing the visitor's experience. This added dimension lets exploring visitors to discover a shipwreck while strolling over an "ocean floor."